

The FEP Ramadanathon!

The Qur'aan was first revealed in Ramadhan. After that every year in Ramadhan the Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) would revise the Qur'aan with the Angel Jibreel (عليه السلام). We would like you to take full advantage of Ramadhan's countless blessings by emulating the Prophet (s) and going through the Qur'aan. Hence we have set up the FEP Ramadanathon, which challenges you to recite as much of the Qaida as you can in Ramadhan.

Day	Pages/chapter completed	Watched Qur'an reflections	Parent's signature	Day	Pages/chapter completed	Watched Qur'an reflections	Parent's signature
Day 1				Day 16
Day 2				Day 17
Day 3				Day 18
Day 4				Day 19
Day 5				Day 20
Day 6				Day 21
Day 7				Day 22
Day 8				Day 23
Day 9				Day 24
Day 10				Day 25
Day 11				Day 26
Day 12				Day 27
Day 13				Day 28
Day 14				Day 29
Day 15				Day 30

How it Works:

- Your teacher will give you individual targets to reach based on your reading level

- For each day of Ramadhan, you can fill in the table above to record your progress. This will be signed by your parents every day and checked by your teachers every week. Your teachers will also test you on some of the pages you have covered, or ask you about what you've taken from the Qur'aan reflections.

- Qa'idah students can take part too!

Students who revise up to their present page 3 times will gain a Bronze medal. Those who complete twice their normal amount of Qa'idah Homework/Sabaq and will gain Silver. Those who do both these things, and watch the Daily Qur'aan summaries during Ramadhan and write down 3-5 things they have learnt and implement at least 1 thing in their life will achieve a Gold medal.

- Tajweed / Qur'aan students!

Students who revise up to their present page 3 times will gain a Bronze medal. Those who complete twice their normal amount of Qa'idah Homework/Sabaq and read the English translation of the Qur'aan will gain Silver. Those who do both these things, and watch the Daily Qur'aan summaries during Ramadhan and write down 3-5 things they have learnt and implement at least 1 thing in their life will achieve a Gold medal.