

A personal account of Hajj: Malcolm X

As a child Malcolm X (1925-1965) suffered from severe racism. He grew up to be a gangster and eventually wound up in prison. Here he converted to a Black American form of Islam (Nation of Islam) that was racist against white people. His experiences on Hajj however were to have a profound effect on his views.

1. Malcolm wanted to go on Hajj because...

---

---

---

2. What type of Muslims did Malcolm meet and why did he say this would surprise his wife?

---

---

---

3. What effect did his pilgrimage to Makkah have on his views towards white people?

---

---

---

4. What did he say the true practice of Islam could do?

---

---

---

---

5. What were the views of the 'Nation of Islam' towards the whites?

---

---

---

---

---

A personal account of Hajj: Malcolm X

As a child Malcolm X (1925-1965) suffered from severe racism. He grew up to be a gangster and eventually wound up in prison. Here he converted to a Black American form of Islam (Nation of Islam) that was racist against white people. His experiences on Hajj however were to have a profound effect on his views.

1. Malcolm wanted to go on Hajj because...

---

---

---

2. What type of Muslims did Malcolm meet and why did he say this would surprise his wife?

---

---

---

3. What effect did his pilgrimage to Makkah have on his views towards white people?

---

---

---

4. What did he say the true practice of Islam could do?

---

---

---

---

5. What were the views of the 'Nation of Islam' towards the whites?

---

---

---

---

---